How does DOVE Mission make a difference around the world?

DOVE Mission International (DMI) exists to make the world a better place by training and sending people around the world to serve with churches and needy communities. Currently, workers are based in Kenya, Zambia, Germany, the Caribbean, South Africa, Thailand, Australia and also serve with the homeless in Philadelphia. In the past year, nearly 90 young people were on short term mission and service projects assisting with outreach to children in Haiti, training other youth in Bulgaria, and joining with the Canadian House of Prayer to pray for their parliament. DMI has drilled wells in rural communities and has helped economic and environmental development by funding the establishment of tree nurseries.
